DAY 1 INNOVATOR BIOGRAPHIES

Annual Innovation Conference

Mark Morgan, President - SHERRILL MORGAN

In his 30 years at SHERRILL MORGAN, Mark has accumulated a wealth of experience in establishing and managing employee benefit plans. As the founder of SHERRILL MORGAN's group health division, he paved the way in developing a systematic approach to healthcare benefits for governmental clients and has personally managed over 150 of them. He is a licensed Agent and Consultant and per SHERRILL MORGAN policy, is up to date on the latest healthcare rules and regulations. Understanding that an innovative approach is necessary to stay ahead in the healthcare industry, Mark has helped SHERRILL MORGAN to develop its partial self-funding division which allows employers (especially government agencies) to have a measure of control over their healthcare costs.

Mark is a leading proponent for transparency in healthcare costs and is regularly invited to speak at human resource conventions on health benefits and health care reform. Mark is also an active community supporter having served on the Boards of numerous organizations including Kids Helping Kids, the Steinfeld Toy Foundation, and Kentucky Health Purchasing.

Lisa Stamm, Esq., Vice President, Consulting Services - SHERRILL MORGAN

Lisa is a graduate of Northern Kentucky University and the University of Cincinnati College of Law. As a licensed attorney, she is able to consult with clients regarding applicable state and federal laws that are applicable to their health plans. She is also knowledgeable about compliance with applicable laws, including federal health care reform, COBRA, ERISA, and HIPAA.

Lisa leads the self-funded division at SHERRILL MORGAN. Her team employs innovative new tools and plan designs to save clients money and allow them more control over their health plans. She is an expert at contract review and negotiation and strives to provide clients with the best possible service.

Lisa is also an expert and featured speaker on regulatory issues, particularly as they relate to health care reform. She is a regular speaker at local, regional, and national conferences. She has been a member of the Kentucky Bar Association since 1992.

Kurt Harden, President and Chief Executive Officer - MedBen

Kurt Harden is President and Chief Executive Officer for MedBen, a Newark, Ohio-based group third party administrator and data analytics company with clients throughout the United States. Harden started with MedBen in 1991 and held numerous positions with the company before being named President in 2012 and CEO in 2018. He has overseen the development of innovative cost saving solutions for clients in the areas of pharmacy benefit coverage, clinical claim review, wellness, and plan language solutions. In 2015 MedBen launched MedBen Analytics, LLC., a Medicare bundled payment analytics company that turns clients' claim data into actionable insights.

Harden speaks to national audiences on leveraging data to transform behavior. He has been active in his community serving in a variety of volunteer and elected positions with local business, governmental, and educational organizations. He lives in Newark with his wife Kate and has five children.

DAY 2 INNOVATOR BIOGRAPHIES

Annual Innovation Conference

Todd Foushee, Co-Founder and CEO - On Target Health

Todd has over 30 years of experience in health care and health insurance industry, serving in many management roles overseeing the actuarial, claims adjudication, data analytics and or health underwriting functions. Todd's experience includes administration of Wellness and Population Health programs, Commercial, Medicare, and Workers' Compensation plans at Anthem BCBS, CoreSource and Golden Rule Insurance Companies. He has also served as Director of Operations for a Benefits Consulting Agency and Vice President of Business Development at Quad Medical, an onsite primary care clinic operator.

Currently, Todd serves as the CEO of On Target Health (OTH), which offers a worksite weight management program that focuses on one of the main drivers of inflammation in the body. That being too much fatty tissue on the body. Based on the participant's physiology, the OTH program is designed to educate participants on how to lose and sustain the loss of fatty tissue versus lean mass. This is accomplished by measuring a person's body composition, "resting" metabolism and coaching on the necessary behavioral modifications that if unmanaged are known to contribute to weight gain.

Todd holds a Bachelor of Science Degree from the University of Louisville, a MBA Certification from Somerset CPA Group, and recently completed the Babson College/Goldman Sachs' Scholars Program for Entrepreneurs.

Mike Williams, C.E.O. - SHERRILL MORGAN

Mike has been with SHERRILL MORGAN for more than 20 years and has been instrumental in developing the company's fully insured and small group divisions. He has been a driving force for groups to implement new cost cutting solutions such as pooling and small group self-funding. As a licensed Agent and Consultant, Mike has extensive health insurance knowledge of claims issues, state laws and guidelines, and customer service. Mike is regularly sought to be a speaker on topics such as community rating, collaborative health plans, and innovative plan design options.

Mike is also an active member in the health care industry having served on several insurance company advisory boards and on several state advisory panels including the Insurance Coverage Affordability and Relief program in Kentucky. He has also been an advocate for transparency with pricing of drugs and services in the industry and practices that transparency as one of SHERRILL MORGAN's core values.

Joe Jones, Group Account Manager - SHERRILL MORGAN

Joe is originally from Western Kentucky but moved to Tennessee to attend Austin Peay State University where he completed his Bachelor of Science in Interdisciplinary Studies. While attending Austin Peay State University, Joe was very active in helping in educational outreaches around the community. He was head of the Interlibrary Loan student department and also did volunteer teaching in the local school district.

Joe joined SHERRILL MORGAN in 2012 and works as the liaison between carriers and providers and the employees. He works hard to ensure that all employees know about enrollment, how their plan works, and how any changes affect them. Prior to joining the SHERRILL MORGAN family, Joe taught 4th grade in Nashville, TN for 3 years. He and his wife Emily have two children and currently reside in Independence, KY.
